

The Boca Raton Theatre Guild

Who we are...and what we do

The Boca Raton Theatre Guild, Inc. (BRTG) is a not-for-profit organization led by a group of volunteers dedicated to producing professional quality performances, advancing the art of theater, and involving the community in all aspects of its activities. The BRTG provides an outlet for those interested in any or all facets of theatre, or being part of the audience. In addition to producing plays by established writers, the BRTG encourages and showcases talented new playwrights.

In the Fall of 1990, the Guild was part of the inaugural season of the Willow Theater, and since then, BRTG has enjoyed the generous support of the City of Boca Raton and the Boca Raton Beach and Park District in mounting all of its productions. The members of the Boca Raton Theatre Guild are extremely proud to be your community theatre!! Our policy is to keep ticket prices as low as possible, so all may attend professional level theater.

Your participation helps the Boca Raton Theatre Guild continue this valued asset to the Boca Raton community. If you would like to join us in the BRTG in future theater endeavors and adventures, please e-mail:

Thank you for your support and participation!

Sincerely;

The Board of the Boca Raton Theatre Guild
